

HPAI BIOSECURITY BEST PRACTICES

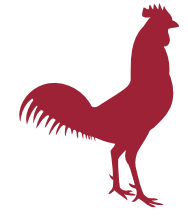

LOOK FOR SIGNS OF ILLNESS

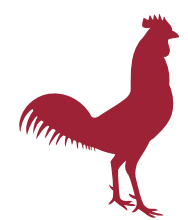

Sudden death without clinical signs.

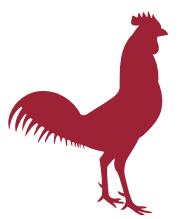

Decreased egg production or soft-shelled or misshapen eggs.

Nasal discharge, coughing, sneezing, or diarrhea.

Lack of coordination or a lack of energy or appetite.

Purple discoloration of legs, combs, wattles, and hocks or swelling of head, eyelids, combs, wattles and hocks.

de.gov/poultry

DELAWARE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE